Detailed Action

The amendment of September 30, 2003 is hereby acknowledged and entered.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim Rejections- 35 U.S.C. 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 18-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. More specifically the recitation "under photoperiodic conditions" is indefinite. Since photoperiod is simply the length of light exposure, all conditions are "photoperiodic." So it is not clear what limitation is intended.

Claim Rejections- 35 U.S.C. 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 18-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Heide in view of Darrow as previously stated for claims 18-25 (paper no. 23, pg. 3)

Response to Arguments

Applicant argues that the plants were merely normalized for the experiment, i.e. grown in constant temperature (24 °C) and in constant light....". This is not persuasive because, as indicated by Heide, strawberry plants are grown above the Artic Circle, where normal summer conditions include continous light.. It was obvious to do the same thing with strawberries in a temperate climate such as Florida, i.e. to optimize how much to decrease the temperatures and photoperiod starting with normal summer conditions. For Heide, "normal" summer conditions have 24 hours of constant light.

Conclusion

No claim is allowed.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
